SEWING CLASS

To Begin Saturday At Rooms of Chamber Of Commerce

Free sewing classes for girls will be opened at the chamber of commerce this Saturday afternoon at two o'clock under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Any girl in the city of Alexandria or environs is eligible for registration in these classes providd she is ten years old or over. It is very important, however, that the girls enter promtply, preferably this week, as registration will be closed October 8, and no new children will be accepted in the classes after that time until February first, which is the beginnng of the second term. This free sewing school, the courses of which will equal those given in the public schools of Washington or Arlington county, will be under the trained supervision of Mrs. Grace Bernard who has been a student of the National School of Domestic Science and Art in Washington. Several volunteer teachers will make up teh taching staff and follow the course as outlined by Mrs. Bernard for this term's work.

The beginners in sewing will first learn the fundamental stitches—even and unever basting, running, whole back and half back stitches, and over casting, on simple samplers, the material for which is furnished, After mastering these they will be taught hemming, making a facing or false hem, the napkin hem, and bias facing, on a sampler, also after which they will apply what they have learned on a laundry bag.

Following the completion of this, the children will be shown the correct method of making a French fell seam, a flat fell, a patch, of sewing on hooks and eyes, gathering and gauging making a placket, sewing on of buttons and the making of button holes. The lessons will then be applied to the making of a doll's petticoat, a sewing apron, and a simple nightgown.

Those children who followed the course faithfully last year and were so diligent that they even continued work during the summer under Mrs. Bernard's personal instruction will continue with more advanced work under Mrs. Bernard and Mrs. M. L. Horner.

After the sewing period which will continue from 2 to 3:30 p. m., each Saturday, free motion pictures will be shown. This week three reels be on the program, Speeding Up, and Under the Stars and Stripes.

STATE NEWS

Danville—The police today were looking a large automobile, the occupants of which are said to have broken into a store at Yanceyville, N. C., last night and stole 30 new automobile tires valued at $600.

Fredericksburg—The Leeland Community League and Agricultural Club wil hold its annual fair at Leeland School Friday, September 23. In spite of the unfavorable year, plans have been made to have a better fair than ever before and have added a number of classes to the premium lists.

Fredricksburg—At the request of the State Democratic committee, Senator C. O'Conor Goolrich, of this city, will open the political campaign at Staunton next Monday, September 26, and address the people of that city and of Augusta County on that day.

Richmond—Major H. L. Opie, of Staunton, prominent in the American Legion and one of the party of Virginians who recently represented that organization abroad, is understood to be slated for appointment as colonel of the second Virginia regiment, the formation of which has been completed in the last few weeks

Danville—The large two story brick building, owned by the Dan River and Riverside Cotton Mills, and occupied by the Park Place Mercantile Company, was damagegd by fire to the extent of nearly $75,000.

Petersburg—The Petersburg bright tobacco market opened today with 500 growers present from all sections of southside Virginia. Offerings were very large and the prices tendered by buyers was good The quality of the leaf was said to be better than ever offered here.

Charlottesville—The bronze statue of "Stonewall" Jackson, given to Charlottesville by Paul Goodloe Mc Initre, has reached the city after considerable delay. This week it will be mounted upon the pedestal in Jackson Park. The unveiling exercises will take place October 19, the second day of the annual meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia and Sons of Veterans. This work of Charles Keck is probably his masterpiece. It is a meaning and impressive portraiture of the great soldier, expressing in feature and pose alert vigor, stern purpose nad prompt, forceful action.

Richmond—Preaching on the significant text, "Blessed Are The Peace Makers," in Old St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D. D., the rector, made the climax of his sermon an appeal to his congregation to "use their utmost influence" to see to it that no such parade as that of the Ku Klux Klan's on Saturday night shall ever be allowed in Richmond again. Permitting men who will not show their faces and whose name and insignia carry a veiled threat, said Dr. Bowie, to parade the streets of Richmond would be to outrage every sense of justice.

Richmond—Falling a distance of 15 feet down the side of a 3,000 foot precipice in the Andes Mountains, when her mule lost his balance, almost buried in piles of fresh snow, dug out by half breed Indian guides, amidst the howls and yaps of the accompanying dogs, and escaping without a single injury, is the story which Mrs. James E. Cannon today relates in regard to her trip to South America. Mrs. Cannon arrived in New York Friday on the steamship "Orbita." During her trip she visited Chili, Bolivia and Peru. Three hundred mules and Indian guides and dogs conducted a party of which Mrs. Cannon was a member a distance of six miles over the Andes. Mrs. Cannon is the wife of State Senator Cannon, of Richmond.

Lexington—The annual report of General E. W. Nichols, superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, has just come from the press. General Nichols discusses a number of topics of interest to the institute, its alumni, patrons, faculty and cadets. Among them is the question of size of the corps. In the last few years there has been such a demand to enter that facilities to accommodate cadets have been taxed to the limit, General Nichols points out that with more than 600 cadets now on the rolls, one of two things should be done—amterially to decrease numbers or provide additional facilities. The requirements for admission, now fourteen academic units will probably soon be advanced to fifteen. But each time the entrance requirements have been raised applications for matriculation have increased with each successive academic year.

Norfolk,—That lump and egg bituminous coal can be delivered to Norfolk homes at a price of $1.50 below that fixed by the local Retail Coal Association, is being demonstrated by a local independent dealer whose advertisement appeared in Norfolk newspapers. Substantiating statements made in the Virginia-Pilot that the profit made on this grade of soft coal by the retail coal combine of the city, fixing the price and adhering to it, is between one and two dollars too great, this dealer declares that he is able to cut the association's price $1.50 per ton, deliver coal in quality superior to most of that furnished by the members of the combine, and make a fair profit on the sale.

TAX MEASURE AND TREATIES BEFORE SENATE

Hot Fight on Anti-Beer Bill Scheduled for Action

MEMBERS ABSENT

Treaty Debate in Senate to Be Held In Open.. Closed Sessions Taboo. Borah To Fight Treaty.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Receipt by the Senate of the Tax Revision bill from the Finance Committee and of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary from President Harding were the principal features of the reassembling today of Congress after its recess.

Only brief sessions were held, the Senate, after reopening of warfare over the Anti-Beer bill and a Democratic attack on President Harding and Administration policies, adjourning until tomorrow, and the House under its aggreement to transact to important business until October 4, adjourning until Saturday after a perfunctory meeting. Three day recesses of the House will continue until next month.

That the filibuster against the Anti-Beer bill with its search and seizure clause and further restrictions against the prescribing of medicinal alcohol, is still in progress, was shown soon after the Senate convened. Senator Reed, of Missouri, confonting Senator Sterling, of South Dakota, a radical dry, expressed his willingness to talk indefinitely if the beer bill were passed at this time.

Two bills affecting prohibition enforcement were among a batch of measures introduced today in the Senate.

Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, author of the controverted provision of the Anti-beer bill regarding search and seizures, introduced a bill to punish Government officials for "murder and other high crimes and misdemeanors" committed in discharge of their duties. It would penalize use of unnecssary force by officials and subject them to the laws of the States in such cases

Senator Dillingham, Republican, Vermont, introduced a bill to punish counterfeiting of stamps and labels of bonded distilled spirits. The penalties proposed were a fine of $1,000 and five years' imprisonment.

Many members of both bodies failed to put in a nappearance today. Only 54 of the 96 Senators answered the roll call, and but two score House members heard the gavel, Republican leaders expressed frank disappointment over the small attendance.

In the Senate the peace treaties were referred to the Foreign Relations Committee, which will begin their consideration tomorrow. Little time would be required by the committee for consideration, Senator Lodge said, adding that Secretary Hughes and other State Department officials who already have explained the treaties to the committee would not be recalled. Night sessions of the Senate, Republican leaders said, were being considered to expedite ratification.

Senate debate of the treaties, Senator Lodge announced, would be in open session. It had been stated previously by Republican leaders that the debate would be in executive session and no reason for the change to public sessions was given. Closed sessions have been opposed by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, and others.

KIWANIANS HEAR ADDRESS BY ASHBURNER

Manager of City of Norfolk Tells of Results Accomplished in That City

LARGE CROWD

Total of 257 Cities Have New Form of Government—None Have Gone Back To Old Form.

The numerous advantages of the city manager form of city government now in operation in the city of Norfolk were told this afternoon by Charles E. Ashburner, city manager of that place.

During the past three years the speaker, addressing the Kiwanis Club, members of the chamber of commerce and others at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club, said that salaries of teachers have been raised, two schools erected during the past two years and one school now under construction. The water supply system has been doubled at a cost of four million dollars, one million dollars spent for street improvements, twenty five miles of sewers constructed and more than that number of miles of water mains laid. The fire department has been improved by compdete motorization, new equipment added, pay of firemen increased, salaries of the policemen increased and number of other additions and improvements made under the new from of government were by the speaker.

In opening his address Mr. Ashburner said that seven years ago were nineteen cities in the United States operating under the form of city government and that today there are exactly 254 and none have gone back to the old system.

In most cases he said that those who opposed a change in form of city government simply do so through selfish reasons. He explained that the new system is not a reform movement. It he asserted is simply a system of where the city gets a dollars' worth for every dollar spent as every American business desires in his own business affairs in private life. Under the new form he said the business manager can be hired and fired by the people who elect and that also you have a right to removal.

Continuing Mr. Ahburner declared that the greatest trouble today is dividing the city into wards by imaginary lines. Those elected to the council he declares should represent the people as a whole. Five councilman he said should be chosen at lodge. There should be added on lines other than the corporate limits.

In the city of Norfolk he said the city council is elected at large and the city manager has got to make good. There should be no differences in employment of persons because of politics or religious belief he said. It should all be based on the man's ability to produce results he declared

Mr. Ashburner said that the failure in many cities to get results under the old system is because the officials dont have any practical methods to go by. Most cities, however, he declared have good men, but the reason they don't succeed is because they are compelled to work with the same old tools.

BOOZE GUEST SAYS HE HEARD FATTY CONFESS

Dead Girl's Former Manager Testifies Before Los Angeles Jury

EVIDENCE CONFLICTS

Lowell, Sherman, Missing Witness Threatened With Indictment unless He Returns.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 22.—Admission declared to have been made by Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle that he had used a foreign substance in an attack upon Miss Virginia Rappe during a party at the Hotel St. Francis, in San Francisco where described by Al Semnacher, afriend of Arbuckle, today before the Los Angeles county grand jury, according to W. C. Doran, Chief Deputy District Attorney. Arbuckle is held at San Francisco charged with murdering Miss Rappe. Doran said Semnacher swore Arbuckle had told of applying ice to portions of Miss Rappe's body.

Doran outlined the testimony in confirming reports that Semnacher had made identical statements to him an earlier time and then had declared that he had not, even at the San Francisco inquiry, told of the alleged admitted facts.

Four heard Admissions

Semnacher testified that on the morning following the party Arbuckle told him of the presence of Lowell Sherman, Harry McCollough, chauffeur, that he had taken Miss Rappe into a room with him and had comitted certain acts in connection with the alleged crime. These acts according to Chief, Deputy Doran were of a character likely to have caused the injury from which Miss Rappe's death resulted.

The grand jury session was called by Doran in order to hear this testimony, information concerning which was immediatedly conveyed to District Attorney Brady at San Francisco

Harry McCollough, chauffeur for Arbuckle, who was present when the alleged statements were made by Arbuckle, according to Semnacher's testimony, also was examined by the grand jury today, but his testimony was not made public.

Semnacher announced after the examination that he would leave Los Angeles for San Francisco at once.

Conflicting, Brady Says.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Testimony said to have been given today by Alfred Semnacher before the Los Angeles county grand jury in relation to the Arbuckle murder case here "is in direct contradiction of his testimony before the San Francisco grand jury," District Attorney Brady said.

Frederick Fishback and Ira C. Fortlouis, who were guests at the party in the Hotel St. Francis in which Arbuckle is charged with having fatally injured Miss Rappe, arrived in San Francisco from Los Angeles, today, Brady announced, and will be questioned later.

Brady said that Semnacher testified before the grand jury here that Arbuckle made no admissions to him whatever concerning his alleged relations with Miss Rappe, which is in contradiction to his purported Los Angeles testimony that Arbuckle did make these admissions.

Semnacher telephoned from Los Angeles today that he did not have money enough to come to San Francisco to give testimony in the Arbuckle case, District Attorney Brady announced.

Ordered Back to Frisco

"I told him to get up here without any loss of time or suffer the consequences," Brady said. "It seems to strange to me that he could bring Miss Rappe and Mrs. Delmont to San Francisco from Los Angeles in an automobile and evidently spent a lot of money."

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 22.—The Harding administration has gone mad on the subject of investigations. The latest activity in this direction is a probe into the doings of the Ku Klux Klan which organization seems to be disturbing certain elements throughout the country. Attorney General Daugherty, assisted by William J. Burns, Chief of the Bureau of Investigation, is engaged in making a thorough inquiry into the operations of the Klan to discover, if possible, whether it has violated any of the federal statutes. Up to the present time, the investigation has not gotten any further than many others of a similar character ordered by the Republican administration. The Gazette is not attempting to make any defense of any organization which is operating contrary to American ideas and ideals but is simply pointing out the mania for investigations along all lines which seems to possess the party in power. If the Ku Klux Klan is violating the laws of the nations it should be punished, but it is a two to one bet that nothing will come out of the present probe ordered by the Department of Justice.

Prepare to Greet Foch

Great preparations are being made for the forthcoming visit to the United States of Marshal Foch of France, the man who commanded the armies of the allied and associated nations in their battle against Germany. Marshal Foch will be the guest of the American people during his stay in the country, although his chief purpose in coming will be to act as the leading military adviser of the French delegation to the conference on the limitation of armaments. Already the French Ambassy here is being deluged with invitations for Marshal Foch to visit various portions of the United States and it is understood he is disposed to accept as many of these as possible and as his duties will permit. The evidence of hearty enthusiasm which can be accorded a visitor from France was shown at the time Marshall Joffee arrived on our shores Of all the foreign visitors who came to the National Capital during the war period it was Marshal Joffe who made the American people throw up their hats with enthusiasm.

Busy Session For Senate

The Congress has now reconvened for the final phase of the extraordinary session called by President Harding. While the House will have little if anything to do, the Senate will find itself overwhelmed with work which will keep it busy form now until the regular session convenes in December. The Senate's attention is to be directed to consideration of the $3,400,000,000 tax revision bill, the tariff bill, treaties of peace with Germany Austria and Hungary, the Borah bill, for the exemption of American coastwise vessels from payment of tolls through the Panama Canal, the $500,000,000 railroad funding bill, the Campbell-Willis anti-beer bill and the bill granting the Secretary of the Treasury authority to refund the $11,000,000,000 owed by the allied nations to the United States. This is a rather healthy program which even the most optimistic do not feel can be carried out. But it is a program to which the Republican administration is committed, nevertheless, and one for whose fulfillment it will be held accountable to the people of the country.

The Election In New Mexico

Republicans in Washington and especially members of the Harding administration will find but very little comfort from the election returns in New Mexico. While they seem to indicate that the Republican candidate for Senator has been elected, he has slipped through by such a close margin that no consolation can be forthcoming for the Harding administration. This is the first opportunity that the voters of the country have voiced their approval or disapproval of the Republican policies and while the party in power may claim that the election of Senator Bursum means a vindication for their course the Democrats will be perfectly content to rest the case there. Bursum's majority was so small as to clearly indicate that with a few more weeks of campaigning the Democrats would have been successful. Richard H. Hanna the Democratic Senatorial candidate was a "progressive" of the highest type and he showed his strength with the people of New Mixico by the remarkable run he made.

To Conduct Air Test

On Friday of this week, the Army Air Service will launch an attack on the one time battleship Alabama. Gas and demolition bombs, in a series of air raids, will be hurled upon the war ship both day and night in an effort to prove the effectiveness of flying fleets. The tests will be conducted in Chesapeake Bay in the vicinity of Tangier Island and are expected to last over a period of six days.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Col. Mason Mathews Patrick, of the Corps of Engineers, was nominated today by President Harding to be chief of the air service, with rank of Major General.

During the war he was first appointed a brigadier general of the national army and served in that rank as chief engineer, service of supply, American Expeditionary Forces, in charge of the gigantic consrtuction program in the supply zones in France. Later, when difficulty arose with the air program of the xpeditionary forces, he was selected by General Pershing as chief of the air service, and in that capacity served through the remainder of the war.

Geenral Menoher, who commanded the Forty-second (Rainbow) Division throughout its entire fighting career in France, wil be given his choice of the three corps area commands that will be vacant in the near future, and it is generally assumed he will elect to succeed Major General Leonard Wood as commander of the Sixth Corps area (Chicago) when th latter is appointed Governor General of the Philippines. The other two positions are the Fourth Corps area (Atlanta), which will be vacated on the early retirment of Major General John F. Morrison, and the Eight Corps area (San Antonio, Texas), now commanded by Major General Josph F. Dickman, also to retire.

HAVE A BIG NIGHT

150 Haylofters From D. C. Attend Meeting Last Night

One hundred and fifty members of the Hayloft of Washington visited Alexandria last night and participated in the convocation of the Knights of the Tin-Panites, a side degree of fun and good fellowship of Siminole Tribe of Red Men in this city. All were costumed as farmers and tramps and a large parade had been planned by the local members but owing to the heavy rain the same had to be abandoned.

Twenty-five tramps were shown the mysteries of the fraternity, and the meeting will go down in history of "Redmenship" as one long to be remembered, especially the "tramps" who received the degrees.

After the degree work addresses were made by several of the officers from Washington and Alexandria, after which the "Glad Hand" Comittee furnished a buffet supper which was greatly enjoyed by all. At midnight the meeting adjourned. Alarge flashlight picture of the delegation was taken.

TODAY'S THOUGHT "Bury me on my face," said Diogenes; and when he was asked why, he replied, "Because in a little while everything will be turned upside down."

CITY MANAGER

On October 4th, a week from next Tuesday, will be held a special election, to determine whether or not the city will change its form of government. Should this vote be in the affirmative then an election will be held in June 1922, for the election of five councilmen at large, who will thereafter form the legislative and executive body of the municipality.

The Gazette will publish next week a questionnaire, carefully prepared by Judge James R. Caton, which answers every question that could arise in the mind of the citizen desiring information.

A very important factor in the election of October 4th, will be the vote of the women, who now have the electoral franchise, and will unquestionably exercise it in deciding this issue of so grave import to Alexandria. We believe women to be more conscientious, as a rule, than men, in the performance of any duty. Especially is this true of the voting privilege. They are making up for lack of experience by a serious study of those questions which enter into civic life. We recommend to them, especially, therefore, a careful reading of Judge Caton's questionnaire, as they will thus obtain a full knowledge of the differneces between the old and new forms of city government. Wherever tried thus far the city managership form has proved its immense superiority. The facts are so convincing and so overwhelmingly one-sided that it would really seem that there was no argument per contra.

The Alexandria Kiwanis Club, a public-spirited body of citizens, has as its guest of honor today, Mr. C. E. Ashburner, city manager of Norfolk, who may be termed at once the Nestor and Ulysses of all city managers, who speaks to the club upon the subject of his profession.

The Gazette will contain due notice in tomorrow's issue, of his address.

LOWER FARES TO WASHINGTON

The Gazette takes great pleasure in announcing that the Washington-Virginia Railway proposes a reduction in its fares between Washington and Alexandria, subject only to the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Gazette believes, so far as it has seen the schedule that the new rates are fair and reasonable. Several other favorable changes regarding time limit, freight and milk rates are also noted, and doubtless satisfactory. The Gazette will publish in full tomorrow the contemplated changes. We congratulate both the people of Alexandria and its suburbs, and the Railway Company as well on this effort in the right direction.

The Gazette's contentions are sustained all along the line, and with new rates and a new policy, there should be no reason why the most harmonious relations should not exist in future between the traveling public and the management of its electric transportation.

Senator Lodge, Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, in charge of the Anti-Beer bill, and other Republican leaders conferred today with the President regarding the Senate program, which is admittedly congestd. The immediate program, it was announced, was to expedite the tax bill and the peace treaties. Debate on the former probably will begin next Monday, with the Anti Beer fight to continue at available opportunities. The treaties also, it was said, would be "sandwiched in" when ever possible.

The Railroad Debt Funding bill is expected to follow the tax measure, while the technical "unfinished business" of the Senate is the Borah bill to restore free tolls to American coastwise vessels using the Panama Canal. This is fixed for a vote on October 10, with the tax measure being given place in the meantime.

Chairman Penrose, of the Finance Committee, announced today that further haerings on the Tariff Revision would begin soon with the committee working toward its completion while the Senate is engaged on the tax and other measures.

A bill to punish offenses against banks of the Federal Reserve systems was introduced by Chairman Nelson, of the Judiciary Committee. It would make bank robberies punishable by fines of $3,000 and 10 years' imprisonment for the first offense and up to 25 years for a repetition. Penalties for forgeries also would be provided.

TRADE CURRENTS ON THE OCEANS RETURNING TO PRE-WAR CONDITIONS

With the termination of the war, and the reduction of dangers on the Atlantic the share of our imports entering at the port of New York slowly returned to normal, having increased from 42 per cent in 1918 to 53 per cent in 1921 as against 55 per cent in 1914, while the share entering by way of the Atlantic ports as a whole advanced from 58 per cent in 1918 to 69 per cent in 1921 as against 73 per cent in 1914. Meantime, the share entering by the Pacific ports fell from 21 per cent in 1918 to 7 per cent in 1921 as against 7 per cent in 1914.

Thus, so far as the imports are concerned, the share entering through the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific ports again back to practically pre-war proportions of the total imports, while in the case of the northern ports the big growth of our purchases from Canada has permanently increased the share entering through the northern ports from about 10 per cent in the opening year of the war to 16 per cent in 1921.

On the export side, adds the bank's statement, the precentage now handled by the various ports also indicates a return to pre-war conditions of shiping routes. Owing to the demands of Europe for our products and manufactures during the war, the exports which pased out of the port of New York increased from 37 per cent of the total in the fiscal year 1914 to 48 per cent in 1917, while the share by the Atlantic frontage as a whole increased from 55 per cent in 1914 to 70 per cent in 1917. With the congeston of merchandise for exportation at the Atlantic ports and improved facilities at the south, the share of the Gulf ports in the exports increased from 11 per cent in 1916 and 1917 to 22½ in 1921. With the reduction, however, in European demand for our merchandise, New York's percentage in the export trade which had advanced from 37 per cent in 1913 to 49 per cent in 1917 fell to 42 per cent in 1920 and 39 per cent in 1921, while that of the Atlantic ports as a whole, which had advanced from 55 per cent in 1914 to 70 per cent in 1916, dropped to 57 per cent in 1921.

The return of the Atlantic ports to their pre-war share of the trade of the country as a whole, adds the bank statement, is the more striking when we consider that the present trade with Europe, most of which passes through the Atlantic ports, shows in 1921 an increase over 1914 of only ed by the various ports also indicate 82 per cent over 1914, while that with North and South America shows Asia and Oceania an increase of 238 per cent when comparing the fiscal year of 1921 with the fiscal year 1914.—National City Bank Trade Review.

Monday Will Be Your Opportunity To Buy Neponset Floor Covering

65c yd. SPECIAL 65c yd.

Save Money By Buying During This Sale, September 26 to 30

100 Per Cent Waterproof

"Neponset" is not merely waterproof on top and bottom, but 100 per cent waterproof through and through. Water cannot fade the handsome "Neponset" colors; it will not dim the artistic "Neponset" patterns that housewives all the country over are so enthused about, neither will it soak in and injure it in any way—because "Neponset" can lay in the water for weeks and never be the worse off.

The demonstration will start next Monday morning and continue throughout the entire week. We have received thousands of yards of this floor covering for this big sale.

SEE IT IN OUR WINDOWS

Beautiful Patterns

Over twenty different patterns to select from; patterns that are suitable for Kitchens, Dining rooms, Bedrooms, Living Rooms, Bathrooms, etc.. every one new, many just off the press. There are tile, wood, matting, block, conventional and allover effects in striking color combinations that are sure to please every modern housewife.

During the demonstration sale held April 13, 1921 we placed a piece of Neponset on our side walk and in the lobby of the Ingomar and Idle Hour Theatres.

These pieces are still in those places and show little sign of wear. After such a remarkable durability test it is hardly necessary for us to say what you could expect of this wonderful floor covering in your home.

It is guaranteed by the manufacturers, Bird and Son, and to this we also give our unqualified endorsement.

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day'. If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTEN, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world.

Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

Test this Gasoline for Yourself, on the Road

HOWEVER sincere one motorist's statement may be, his experiences with his car cannot be applied exactly to your operation of your car. Most drivers know that individual cars have peculiarities.

We do not ask you to use the improved "Standard" Motor Gasoline simply because you have heard that it is the best on the market. We want you to try it for yourself, according to your own requirements. On a basis of results, alone, we would gladly have you decide whether or not you should use it regularly.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline is a light, volatile fuel which enables your car to start easier and run more smoothly. It has extra pulling power. The recent improvements in the product, made possible by the work of our Development Department, have made "Standard" Motor Gasoline the best obtainable.

But remember that the final test of gasoline quality is how it performs in your motor. Try "Standard" Motor Gasoline for yourself under varying road and weather conditions. It will pay you to begin at once.

A great combination is "Standard" Motor Gasoline for power and Polarine for lubrication.
